

Otis

AND THE

O-237

(CONTINUED)

in his honor, Professor Urey of Columbia begged for an interview with him, and in the midst of all this, Otis was awarded his Pfc stripe, and given an assistant to help him with his KP.

But as fate oftentimes is, this period of acclamation was one of decidedly short duration. In the center of it all Axel was thrust down into a state of dejection. It seemed that Axel had overlooked one reprehensible¹² item in ONION-237-- it left a STENCH¹³.

Occupation forces found it impossible to inhabit a place where ONION-237 had previously been detonated, and research showed that it would be years before the

The ZI'er Staff

The ZI'er was published daily aboard the USAT W.P. Richardson by Transport Services. The transient staff was:

EDITORS ... W. SNELLING, R. PYLE
W. EMMONS

FEATURES ... J. DULAN, W. MARKHAM
R. PURDOM, J. SOFFEY

SPORTS ... J. MOON

CARTOONS ... D. GROVES

PRODUCTION ... J. RAPHAEL, R. KRAUSS
J. GROOVER

*Thanks to Lt HAMILIN
Special Service Officer, and
Sgt Small, for invaluable aid.*

So Long, Mister!

place could be decontaminated sufficiently to permit habitation.

Axel was now sneered upon. He was abhorred, detested, and execrable¹⁴. He was the pseudo-impediment of the occupation forces. He lost his assistant, he was demoted to Pvt, his medal of Onnra was taken away, and he was barred from all Red Cross Clubs. Axel was the epitomy of intelligence once - now .! Soon Axel was going down the toothpaste tube line to redeployment. But he didn't give up - not Axel! He is trying to inflate ONION-237 with concentrated Chanol #5, in a last attempt to eradicate his false calculations. Poor Otis Axelrod!

12 Lousy! 13 It stunk! 14 People didn't like him anymore.

The Last LOG (FOR US)

As of noon today, 10 October the Richardson's Log was as follows:

Latitude 41 44°

Longitude 62 40°

Total miles covered . . . 3135

Miles yesterday 524

Miles to go 515

Average speed 21.3 knots

It is estimated that we will reach New York Harbor at noon tomorrow, and that by three o'clock the ship will dock.

THE CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

Services for later today -Thursday
1500 hours - Catholic Mass - #6 Area, "A" Deck.
1600 hours - Hymn Sing - Promenade Deck, Port side.

Services for tomorrow - Friday
1000 hours - Protestant Prayer -#6 Area, "A" Deck.
1500 hours - Catholic Mass - # 6 Area, "A" Deck.

These Services are open to all - in event of early arrival services will be cancelled - listen to WPR

"Let us join together in these services in giving thanks to God from our deliverance from our enemies, and our safe return to our homes."